20161030 | John 12:20-26 | The Glory of the Son in the Death of a Seed

Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. So these came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. And Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears much fruit.

Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. If anyone serves me, he must follow me; and where I am, there will my servant be also. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

(John 12:20-26 ESV)

Overview - The glory of the Son is revealed when we follow him to death.

- 1. We die like him when we hate our lives in this world.
- 2. We die like him when we serve him.
- 3. We die like him when we follow him to the cross.
